

REFRIGERATOR ECONOMY

The Best Is Always the Cheapest

The famous Berkshire Refrigerator solves the problem. Twelve have just arrived after a delay of over a month. Get your order in early, as this is the popular priced line.

B. W. Hooker Company, Inc.

Vermont's Largest Housefurnishers

WAITSFIELD

Hugh Baird spent Tuesday in Montpelier.

Miss Ruth M. Joslyn return Tuesday from Middlebury college.

Mrs. George Pierce returned Saturday from Middlesex.

Word has been received of the death of Martin Eagan from tuberculosis at his uncle's home in New York state.

Miss Delia Joslyn spent Tuesday in Montpelier.

Miss Carrie Hubbard is a guest at P. B. Joslyn's.

Edward Foley is visiting relatives in Essex Junction.

The high school pupils residing in Warren were permitted to return Tuesday to their respective homes, where they are kept in quarantine. Miss Josie Trask remains at W. A. Remel's.

Earl Pierce is in Burlington, having his tonsils removed.

R. W. McAllister and family have moved to the James Irving farm in Ira-ville, recently purchased by Harve McAllister.

Everett Wallis graduates this week from Goddard seminary.

William Mills wishes to repudiate as preposterous the statement made in this column of the June 15 issue. He is graduating from the St. Johnsbury academy without honors, and with such equipment for entrance to college as an average ability and an excellent school record.

TALK OF THE TOWN

New auto caps at Fitts'.

New arrival of Panama hats at Mrs. Birnie's, 3 Pleasant street.

Don't miss the big sale of white foot-wear, 40 styles, $1.49 per pair, at Shea's.

Regular meeting of Bright Star Rebekah lodge, No. 18, Wednesday evening, June 20, at 8 o'clock.

Regular meeting of local 241, R. C. I. P. A., will be held in Worthen hall on Wednesday evening, June 20, at 7:30.

Joseph Landi of New York, who came here to attend the wedding of his brother, Peter F. Landi, to Miss Christina G. Reid, is passing a few days with friends in the city.

A party of 10 ladies gave Mrs. H. G. Bennett a very pleasant surprise last evening at her home on Washington street. After a program of vocal and instrumental music, refreshments were served, when some beautiful silver was presented the bride, with best wishes for a happy and prosperous future.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Levin and daughter, Rosa, of Merchant street, and their guest, A. Moss of Boston, went to Montpelier last evening to attend the Simons-Yett wedding. The bride, Miss Gussie Yett, formerly acted as cashier in her father's store in this city.

David Rueda, aged 22 months, 7 days, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Rueda of West-sterville, died at 8:35 this morning of pneumonia. The child had been ill for 13 days. Burial will take place Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at St. Sylvester's cemetery. Besides the parents, three brothers and a sister survive.

Freeman Walker, a student at Middlebury college, arrived in the city last evening to pass the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Walker of Edgewood.

The condition of Peter Polky, an upper Graniteville man, who was brought to the City hospital last Friday after suffering injuries in an accident at the Wetmore & Morse quarry, is reported to be somewhat improved.

Blossom J. Ossola, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ossola of North Main street, a 1917 graduate of Spaulding high school, left yesterday afternoon for Chicago, Ill., where he has secured employment with the Chicago Gas Works.

Mrs. Frank Martin of Plainfield was in the city last evening to attend the graduating exercises of the commercial class at Goddard seminary, of which her daughter, Miss Marion G. Martin, was a member. Miss Florence Martin, a sister, who is teaching in Orange, also attended the exercises.

Raymond Wells, a student at Northwestern Dental college in Chicago, is passing a few days with his uncle, P. G. Howland of French street, and with other relatives. Within a few days Mr. Wells plans to go to Newport, where he will be employed as a dentist's assistant during the summer.

Dr. B. H. Stone, the state pathologist, and his assistant, Dr. C. F. Stone, of Burlington passed through the city yesterday while on their way to Chelsea, where they have been summoned to testify in the homicide case of State vs. Mrs. Anna Feich.

Gunnar James Webster, James Robertson and Arthur Deans, who passed a few days in Barre, have returned to Montreal, P. Q., there to rejoin their company in a Canadian regiment. Private Robert Webster, a brother of Gunnar Webster, has rejoined C company in the 1st Vermont regiment at Fort Ethan Allen.

Robert R. Newcomb of Boston is to be the speaker at a smoke talk to be held in the Vincitia club Thursday evening under the auspices of the Barre Board of Trade. It is announced that Mr. Newcomb is to speak on the war situation. All members of the Board of Trade and the Vincitia club are invited to attend. A buffet luncheon will be served.

Hereafter Barre, with its reputation as the only oasis in Washington county, will be as arid as the Sahara to all uniformed men, as the result of a ruling made by the county license commissioners and posted recently in the establishment of each licensee. It is stated that local licensees, ever since the ruling was first discussed by the government, have been disposed to refuse men in the uniform of the army or navy, but the commissioners have decided to make it mandatory and to that end formal notice has been served upon the holders of all first and seventh class licenses in the city.

Notice. Regular meeting of Barre polishers' branch, G. C. I. A., will be held in their hall, Nichols' block, on Thursday, June 21, at 7 o'clock. Election of officers. Per order, A. H. Pirie, Sec.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Visit Fitts' annex for bargains.

Children's tennis oxfords, sizes to 11, 55c per pair at Shea's.

Buy your ticket now for the Co. C benefit, "The Girl from Broadway."

Conroy G. Leavens of Cambridge has been spending a few days in the city on business.

A daughter was born Thursday, June 14, to Mr. and Mrs. George T. Brigham of 6 Beckley court.

Judge S. C. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson of Chelsea were among the visitors in Barre yesterday.

Regular meeting of tool sharpeners' branch, No. 2, this evening at 7 o'clock in polishers' hall.

Miss Bertha Nason of Fair View left this morning for an extended stay in Portsmouth, N. H.

Regular meeting of Barre council, K. of C., Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Business of importance.

Mrs. Katherine McDonald left the city this morning for Weith, P. Q., where she is to spend the summer.

Miss Wilhelmina B. Ewen of Orange street left yesterday for a visit of a few days in Enosburg Falls.

Frank B. Martin of Marshfield, a former resident of Barre, has been passing a few days with friends in the city.

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Mary Perreo of this city and Victor R. Bizzozero of Montpelier.

Eugene P. Maker left this morning for Burlington, where he is to take examinations for the pre-medical course at the University of Vermont.

Freeman Walker, a student at Middlebury college, arrived in the city last evening to pass the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Walker of Edgewood.

The condition of Peter Polky, an upper Graniteville man, who was brought to the City hospital last Friday after suffering injuries in an accident at the Wetmore & Morse quarry, is reported to be somewhat improved.

Blossom J. Ossola, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ossola of North Main street, a 1917 graduate of Spaulding high school, left yesterday afternoon for Chicago, Ill., where he has secured employment with the Chicago Gas Works.

Mrs. Frank Martin of Plainfield was in the city last evening to attend the graduating exercises of the commercial class at Goddard seminary, of which her daughter, Miss Marion G. Martin, was a member. Miss Florence Martin, a sister, who is teaching in Orange, also attended the exercises.

Raymond Wells, a student at Northwestern Dental college in Chicago, is passing a few days with his uncle, P. G. Howland of French street, and with other relatives. Within a few days Mr. Wells plans to go to Newport, where he will be employed as a dentist's assistant during the summer.

Dr. B. H. Stone, the state pathologist, and his assistant, Dr. C. F. Stone, of Burlington passed through the city yesterday while on their way to Chelsea, where they have been summoned to testify in the homicide case of State vs. Mrs. Anna Feich.

Gunnar James Webster, James Robertson and Arthur Deans, who passed a few days in Barre, have returned to Montreal, P. Q., there to rejoin their company in a Canadian regiment. Private Robert Webster, a brother of Gunnar Webster, has rejoined C company in the 1st Vermont regiment at Fort Ethan Allen.

Robert R. Newcomb of Boston is to be the speaker at a smoke talk to be held in the Vincitia club Thursday evening under the auspices of the Barre Board of Trade. It is announced that Mr. Newcomb is to speak on the war situation. All members of the Board of Trade and the Vincitia club are invited to attend. A buffet luncheon will be served.

Hereafter Barre, with its reputation as the only oasis in Washington county, will be as arid as the Sahara to all uniformed men, as the result of a ruling made by the county license commissioners and posted recently in the establishment of each licensee. It is stated that local licensees, ever since the ruling was first discussed by the government, have been disposed to refuse men in the uniform of the army or navy, but the commissioners have decided to make it mandatory and to that end formal notice has been served upon the holders of all first and seventh class licenses in the city.

Notice. Regular meeting of Barre polishers' branch, G. C. I. A., will be held in their hall, Nichols' block, on Thursday, June 21, at 7 o'clock. Election of officers. Per order, A. H. Pirie, Sec.

Regular meeting of Barre council, K. of C., Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Business of importance.

Mrs. Katherine McDonald left the city this morning for Weith, P. Q., where she is to spend the summer.

Miss Wilhelmina B. Ewen of Orange street left yesterday for a visit of a few days in Enosburg Falls.

Frank B. Martin of Marshfield, a former resident of Barre, has been passing a few days with friends in the city.

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Mary Perreo of this city and Victor R. Bizzozero of Montpelier.

Eugene P. Maker left this morning for Burlington, where he is to take examinations for the pre-medical course at the University of Vermont.

Freeman Walker, a student at Middlebury college, arrived in the city last evening to pass the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Walker of Edgewood.

The condition of Peter Polky, an upper Graniteville man, who was brought to the City hospital last Friday after suffering injuries in an accident at the Wetmore & Morse quarry, is reported to be somewhat improved.

Blossom J. Ossola, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ossola of North Main street, a 1917 graduate of Spaulding high school, left yesterday afternoon for Chicago, Ill., where he has secured employment with the Chicago Gas Works.

Mrs. Frank Martin of Plainfield was in the city last evening to attend the graduating exercises of the commercial class at Goddard seminary, of which her daughter, Miss Marion G. Martin, was a member. Miss Florence Martin, a sister, who is teaching in Orange, also attended the exercises.

Raymond Wells, a student at Northwestern Dental college in Chicago, is passing a few days with his uncle, P. G. Howland of French street, and with other relatives. Within a few days Mr. Wells plans to go to Newport, where he will be employed as a dentist's assistant during the summer.

Dr. B. H. Stone, the state pathologist, and his assistant, Dr. C. F. Stone, of Burlington passed through the city yesterday while on their way to Chelsea, where they have been summoned to testify in the homicide case of State vs. Mrs. Anna Feich.

Gunnar James Webster, James Robertson and Arthur Deans, who passed a few days in Barre, have returned to Montreal, P. Q., there to rejoin their company in a Canadian regiment. Private Robert Webster, a brother of Gunnar Webster, has rejoined C company in the 1st Vermont regiment at Fort Ethan Allen.

Robert R. Newcomb of Boston is to be the speaker at a smoke talk to be held in the Vincitia club Thursday evening under the auspices of the Barre Board of Trade. It is announced that Mr. Newcomb is to speak on the war situation. All members of the Board of Trade and the Vincitia club are invited to attend. A buffet luncheon will be served.

Hereafter Barre, with its reputation as the only oasis in Washington county, will be as arid as the Sahara to all uniformed men, as the result of a ruling made by the county license commissioners and posted recently in the establishment of each licensee. It is stated that local licensees, ever since the ruling was first discussed by the government, have been disposed to refuse men in the uniform of the army or navy, but the commissioners have decided to make it mandatory and to that end formal notice has been served upon the holders of all first and seventh class licenses in the city.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

All Predict a Hot July and August

Are you ready with the right kind of goods for hot weather? Are you waiting for others to select theirs before you do yours? You cannot be waiting for lower prices for that is not the way of things this year. It's more instead of less that you will be asked to pay. We have several kinds that we can offer you now at very low prices—they were early purchases and will look good to you. Call this week.

Summer Wash Goods

The real hot weather kinds

One lot of special values in our basement at 12½c and 15c. These if bought to-day would be marked 20c and 25c per yard. Just the kind for children's dresses and ladies' waists.

On our main floor is a very large assortment of Burton Brothers' Reception Voiles. These were made to sell at 35c. They are double width and as good value as other makes at 50c. These now at 29c per yard. You should see this assortment at once if you would be well pleased.

We have a special 40-inch Colored Voile that would be cheap at 39c. Comes in all colors, such as Pink, Light Blue, Royal, Nile, Med. Blue, Rose, Salmon, and Lavender, at 25c per yard. This is the best seller in our whole line and an extra value.

One lot 36-inch Silk Striped Muslins. These in Light Blue, Pink, Nile, Lavender, and Plain White, are 50c cloths, now at 39c per yard. Send for samples.

Sport Stripes

How many Sport Skirts

will you want for vacation? Two, any way, perhaps more. They are just the kind for vacation time, and here is the largest lot of Sport Stripes that you will see this season. These were bought early. They are priced right. You will like them.

One large lot of Sport Stripes in a very fine grade of 36-inch Percal at 17c per yard.

One lot of Tokio Pongee, 32 inches wide, in Tan and White grounds. These to combine with plain are new, and the price is but 29c per yard.

We have a special lot of Sport Stripes in several different grades, cloths that would sell for from 35c to 50c per yard. To make a special lot, we put these all in stock to sell at 29c per yard.

If you live at a distance, you can see these goods by just asking for samples. We pay the parcel post.

Real Summer Skirt Weather

Have you seen our line of Summer Wash Skirts? This is a line of Skirts that is interesting many who want the newest and latest things for the warm weather wear.

The White Wash Skirt is the popular Skirt of the season. They always look so fresh and clean, and every time they are laundered they look like new.

The Pre-Shrunk Skirts in the Printzess and Wooltex line are values that appeal to all. This line of Skirts we carry in all sizes, from the 24-inch waist band to the large sizes, up to 36-inch waist band.

The Bedford and Corduroy Cords are more popular than ever. These are a cloth that will launder and look nice and new every time, and then they have a body that gives them shape and style.

In the Indian Head, Gabardine and Crash Skirts we can show you a large assortment of styles and values at from $1.00 each to the better grades up to $8.50. See this line of Skirts while the assortment is good.

WHAT ABOUT SUMMER MILLINERY? We are very busy these days. Every day now is bringing new White and Sport Hats into our department. These are the models that are new and the season's most popular values. In the Dark Hat Models we are making special prices for the next few days to clean up the season. Visit this department for the new and popular models.

The Daylight Store

TALK OF THE TOWN

Children's tennis oxfords, sizes to 11, 55c per pair at Shea's.

More new white sport hats just in at the Mrs. Shepard Co., Inc.

Exchange your ticket at Cummings & Lewis' drug store for "The Girl from Broadway."

Miss Lucille Robinson has gone to Morrisville, where she is passing the summer with her parents.

Mrs. Alice Reed of Morrisville is passing several days with her sister, Mrs. Vestella Drown of 19 Plain street.

H. E. Minelli, who has been employed in Barre for some months, left this morning for Hyde Park, where he expects to pass the summer.

Misses Agnes and Katherine Fitzgerald and Miss Florence Canton of Maple avenue are passing a few days at the home of Mrs. Kemp in Northfield.

Rev. W. J. M. Beattie and Frank G. Howland are in Burlington, where they are representing the Church of the Good Shepherd at the annual convention of the Vermont Episcopal diocese.

A meeting of the Bonaccord Football club will be held in the club pavilion Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to attend, as there is business of importance to consider.

Mrs. Agnes Beckman of 18 Granite street is recovering but slowly from the effects of a severe scalding which she suffered in a mishap several days ago.

Mrs. Beckman was in the midst of her washing day duties and had just lifted a cauldron of boiling water from the stove, when she lost her balance. Water spilled from the cauldron over her lower limbs and when a physician was summoned it was found that the lower left leg had been burned severely.

One of the woman have taken over a part of her duties as several weeks will probably elapse ere she is able to resume work.

Acting upon representations made by the aldermanic band committee, Prof. G. Gropelli of the Italian Christopher Columbus band has arranged two public concerts to be given in the near future.

The first concert appearance of the young musicians will take place on the evening of Wednesday, June 27, and the second concert will be given on the evening of July 11. Not long ago the city council authorized its band committee to contract with the manager of the band for two public concerts and intimated that another contract might follow later in the summer. In addition to the Christopher Columbus concert, the newly organized Barre Pipe and Drum band will be heard in open-air concerts this summer as the result of action taken at the council meeting last evening.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Big line wash dresses at Fitts'.

Don't miss the big sale of white foot-wear, 40 styles, $1.49 per pair, at Shea's.

William B. Marston, who is employed by the Boston & Maine railroad as a traveling agent from Worcester, Mass., to Concord, N. H., has been passing a few days with his mother, Mrs. Mary Marston of North Main street.

Frank A. Winslow of Ord, Neb., who was called to Vermont several days ago by the illness and death of his brother, Elmer Winslow, whose funeral was held in East Hardwick last Wednesday, will leave for his home to-night, after visiting for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Northrop of Merchant street.

With the commencement week festivities at Goddard seminary about to reach their height, returning alumni are contributing to the June influx of visitors at the school and while the attendance of old graduates may not be as large as in former years many of the classes are well represented. This evening there will be a concert by the musical department in the chapel and to-morrow will be one of the most eventful days of the week. Alumni gathered at 11 a. m. for their annual literary exercises, will listen to an address by Dr. Rollin C. Blackmer of St. Louis, Mo., the program to be followed by the annual business meeting of the alumni. In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the class day exercises will be held on the campus and to-morrow evening the annual prize speaking event will be staged in the chapel. Graduating exercises at 10 o'clock Friday will be followed by the commencement dinner and speaking at 12:30 p. m. In the afternoon there will be a baseball game and the reception by the teachers and class is to be held in the evening.

WATERBURY

The graduating exercises of the Waterbury grammar school will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church Thursday evening. Three members of the class have been without absent or tardy marks this year: Harold Lease, Beatrice Ledoux, while E. Huntley Palmer has never had a mark of any kind since he entered school.

There will be a meeting of Winoski lodge, No. 49, this evening, at the lodge rooms. Because of polioelectric in Waitfield, members of the lodge in that place will not attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Demeritt are the parents of a son born early this morning. The child is a grandson of Senator and Mrs. B. R. Demeritt and of Edson F. Palmer of Bristol.

WILLIAMSTOWN

W. E. Morrison is employed in the Downs store during the absence of Clyde Morse in Chelsea.

Mrs. Josie B. Waldo and son, Raymond B. Waldo, native Vermonters, who have been living in California for some two years past, have returned to this state, and will remain for an indefinite time.

W. H. Norris' auto stage from Graniteville was in the village this morning to get a dozen members of the local grange, who are to attend Pomona grange at Washington to-day.

Maynard F. Spencer, now of Barre, has lately spent a few days in town as the guest of Alden H. Jewett.

A. S. Winchester, who has been off duty at the McAllister store for several weeks on account of illness, is now able to be at work a part of the time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Marshall Jackson and daughter, Lora, of Barre, were in town yesterday and made a brief stay at W. H. Lougee's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley T. Martin went to Bakersfield to-day to attend commencement at Brigham academy, where Ruth and Richard are students.

Rev. and Mrs. Alven M. Smith, who have been for a few weeks in Stowe, and for the past week in Canton, N. Y., returned to town last Monday evening and will attend commencement at Goddard this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Edson, who have been living in Montpelier of late, have finished their engagement there and came to town to visit Henry Griffin's people, who are relatives. Since their coming last week, Mr. Edson has developed the mumps and the house is now under quarantine.

A pair of rarely noted birds, known to scientists as the solitary heron or stake driver, have apparently adopted this village as their home and the peculiar note of the male may be heard on the meadows, especially just at nightfall.

This bird is sometimes called the bittern and is the "booming bittern" mentioned by the naturalist Thoreau.

Norman J. Pratt is developing a water supply from springs on the H. S. Drury farm on the hill above Graniteville and is just now engaged in the construction of a reservoir for storing the water.

Fred D. Alger has moved to the farm lately purchased of Ray Thresher.

GRANITEVILLE

Malcolm McCaskill leaves to-morrow for Fort Ethan Allen, where he has enlisted.

Misses Esther and Irene MacIver of Denver, Col., arrived today to spend a few weeks with relatives.

Miss Margaret McLean went to the Pittsford sanatorium Sunday for treatment.

Kenneth Buchanan returned Monday night from Lincolnton, P. Q., where he was called by the illness and death of his father.

M. A. Corbett of Northfield is visiting here for a few days.

Mrs. John McRae and Miss Emma MacDonald went to Scottstown, P. Q., to visit. They intend to remain there three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Marshall Jackson and daughter, Lora, of Barre, were in town yesterday and made a brief stay at W. H. Lougee's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley T. Martin went to Bakersfield to-day to attend commencement at Brigham academy, where Ruth and Richard are students.

Rev. and Mrs. Alven M. Smith, who have been for a few weeks in Stowe, and for the past week in Canton, N. Y., returned to town last Monday evening and will attend commencement at Goddard this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Edson, who have been living in Montpelier of late, have finished their engagement there and came to town to visit Henry Griffin's people, who are relatives. Since their coming last week, Mr. Edson has developed the mumps and the house is now under quarantine.

A pair of rarely noted birds, known to scientists as the solitary heron or stake driver, have apparently adopted this village as their home and the peculiar note of the male may be heard on the meadows, especially just at nightfall.

This bird is sometimes called the bittern and is the "booming bittern" mentioned by the naturalist Thoreau.

Norman J. Pratt is developing a water supply from springs on the H. S. Drury farm on the hill above Graniteville and is just now engaged in the construction of a reservoir for storing the water.

Fred D. Alger has moved to the farm lately purchased of Ray Thresher.

Malcolm McCaskill leaves to-morrow for Fort Ethan Allen, where he has enlisted.

Misses Esther and Irene MacIver of Denver, Col., arrived today to spend a few weeks with relatives.

Miss Margaret McLean went to the Pittsford sanatorium Sunday for treatment.

Kenneth Buchanan returned Monday night from Lincolnton, P. Q., where he was called by the illness and death of his father.

M. A. Corbett of Northfield is visiting here for a few days.

Mrs. John McRae and Miss Emma MacDonald went to Scottstown, P. Q., to visit. They intend to remain there three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Marshall Jackson and daughter, Lora, of Barre, were in town yesterday and made a brief stay at W. H. Lougee's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley T. Martin went to Bakersfield to-day to attend commencement at Brigham academy, where Ruth and Richard are students.

Rev. and Mrs. Alven M. Smith, who have been for a few weeks in Stowe, and for the past week in Canton